

STANDARD OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION (SOC) CODES

Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) codes are used by the Federal statistical agencies to classify workers into occupational categories for collecting, calculating, or disseminating data. There are 840 detailed occupations according to their occupational definition. Detailed occupations in the SOC with similar job duties, and in some cases skills, education, and/or training, are grouped together.

The CDL-A Commercial Drivers License Program at NETTTS prepares students for the occupations in the Standard Occupational Classification system below.

53-3032 Heavy and Tractor Trailer Drivers

The HVACR Technology Program at NETTTS offered only at the North Andover campus and the Pawtucket campus prepares students for the occupations in the Standard Occupational Classification system below.

49-9021 Heating and Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Mechanics and Installers